Appendix A

1. In connection with these administratively consolidated bankruptcy cases (the “Cases”), the Debtors will be disclosing to the Committees (which shall include for purposes herein, the members of the Committees) certain information which is confidential and/or proprietary (the “Subject Material”). In recognition of the Debtors’ concern over the sensitivity of the Subject Material, the Committees and each of their constituent members (referred to herein as a “Member”) together with the Committees’ respective legal counsel and advisors retained pursuant to an Order of the Bankruptcy Court, each person associated with a Member providing assistance to that Member in connection with the Member’s duties as a Member (any such person, a “Member Assistant”), and each individual Member’s legal counsel (collectively “Permitted Persons”) hereby agree to treat the Subject Material that is received by or is furnished to (whether orally or in writing) the Committees and/or any of their respective Permitted Persons in accordance with the provisions of this Order and to take or abstain from taking certain actions as herein set forth; provided, however, the number of Member Assistants for any Member shall not exceed at any one time five (5) persons, and no person shall become a Member Assistant (or a Permitted Person) without advance notice to the Debtors. The term “Subject Material” shall include all information, data, reports, computations, projections, forecasts, records, memoranda, summaries, oral conversations, notes, analyses, compilations, studies, interpretations or other documents or materials in whatever form maintained, whether documentary, computerized or otherwise, whether provided by the Debtors or persons acting on behalf of the Debtors, prepared by the Committees (or one of them) or any of their respective Permitted Persons which contain, reflect or are based upon, in whole or in part, any information received by or furnished to the Committees or their Permitted Persons pursuant hereto. The term “Subject Material” shall not include information which (i) is or becomes generally available to, or known by, the public other than as a result of the unauthorized disclosure by either Committee or their respective Permitted Persons; or (ii) becomes available to either Committee on a non-confidential basis from a source other than the Debtors or any of their advisors, agents or affiliates, provided that the information from such source is not known after reasonable inquiry or reasonably should have been known by the Committees or their Permitted Persons to be bound by a confidentiality agreement with, or other obligation of secrecy to, whether by a contractual, legal or fiduciary obligation, the Debtors.

2. The Committees hereby agree that they will use, and will direct and cause their Permitted Persons to use (directly or indirectly), the Subject Material obtained herein solely for the purposes of Committee businesses and functions as set forth in 11 U.S.C. § 1103. Without the consent of the Debtors or further order of the Bankruptcy Court, neither the Committees nor any of their respective Permitted Persons will in any way use, directly or indirectly, any of the Subject Material for the purpose of competing with any of the Debtors, improving their competitive position with respect to any of the Debtors, soliciting or seeking business from any of the Debtors' business prospects, customers or former customers, soliciting or seeking to induce any employee or agent of any Debtor, or become employed or engaged in a business relationship with any Member, their affiliates, any Permitted Persons or their affiliates, or giving business to any of the Debtors' suppliers or providers, or for any other purpose not related to the Cases. Except as otherwise set forth in this Order, the Subject Material will be kept confidential by the Committees and each of their respective Permitted Persons; provided, however, that nothing herein shall be deemed to restrict the Committees from disclosing the Subject Material to the Bankruptcy Court orally or in writing provided that, to the extent reasonably practical and so long as the information is otherwise discoverable, the Committees shall provide three days' notice to the Debtors before disclosing such material to the Bankruptcy Court to allow the Debtors to obtain a protective order (if they choose to do so) and if the Debtors do not obtain a protective order, the Committees shall make any such disclosure under seal, unless the Court orders otherwise.

3. Each Member and Permitted Person, prior to the distribution of any Subject Material, shall be (i) informed of the confidential nature of the Subject Material, (ii) informed of this Order, and (iii) bound by the terms and provisions of this Order to treat such information confidentially in the manner provided in, and subject to the terms of, this Order.

4. If the Debtors believe in good faith that an actual conflict of interest exists between the Debtors and a particular Member or Member's Permitted Persons as to a particular issue, and that existing procedures are not adequate to protect against the risk posed by such conflict of interest, the Debtors may request of the particular Committee that information pertinent to that issue not be viewed by, nor its substance revealed to, a specified Member or such Member's Permitted Persons (collectively, the "Excluded Persons"). The Debtors shall clearly designate any such information in advance and specify the Members that shall not be permitted to have access thereto and shall inform counsel for the particular Committee in advance of the specific reason therefor. The particular Committee, other than the Excluded Persons, shall consider any such requests in good faith and inform the Debtors of its decision whether or not to withhold such information from an Excluded Person. The particular Committee is permitted to inform the Excluded Persons of the Debtors' request and, unless directed to the contrary by the Debtors for good and reasonable business purposes, the basis therefor provided by the Debtors. The particular Committee shall afford the Debtors at least three business days to seek a protective order before delivering such information to an Excluded Person. Excluded Persons retain all rights and remedies to seek access to the information through application to the Bankruptcy Court.

5. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Order or in any other document, agreement or understanding relating hereto, each party (and each employee, representative, or other agent of such party) is authorized to disclose to any and all persons the tax treatment and, tax structure of any transaction being considered by either Committee, and all materials of any kind (including opinions or other tax analyses) that are provided to such party (or any employee, representative, or other agent of such party) relating to such tax treatment and tax structure, except to the extent that such disclosure is subject to restrictions reasonably necessary to comply with securities laws. For purposes of this authorization, the “tax treatment” of a transaction means the purported or claimed U.S. federal income tax treatment of the transaction, and the “tax structure” of a transaction means any fact that may be relevant to understanding the purported or claimed U.S. federal income tax treatment of the transaction.

6. Receipt of the Subject Material constitutes the an acknowledgement by the Committees and their respective Permitted Persons that they are aware that applicable securities laws may impose restrictions on the Committees and their respective Permitted Persons from trading in securities of the Debtors and the Committees and their respective Permitted Persons, agree as to themselves not to trade in securities of the Debtors in violation of applicable securities laws.

7. Unless specifically provided or acknowledged by the Debtors to the contrary, each Permitted Person understands that no materials included in the Subject Material should be relied upon as an accurate representation or assurance of future results. Each Permitted Person further acknowledges that the Debtors and their affiliates, representatives and advisors are not making any representation or warranty, either express or implied, as to the accuracy or completeness of any Subject Material. Nothing in this paragraph shall limit the Debtors’ duties to the Committees under applicable law, and, upon request of either of the Committees or any Member regarding specific Subject Material which may be relied upon for Committee business or functions, the Debtors will make good faith and reasonable efforts to indicate whether such information is reliable. Each Permitted Person agrees, to the fullest extent permitted by law, that neither the Debtors nor any of their affiliates, representatives or advisors, in connection herewith, shall have any liability to any Permitted Person, affiliates, representatives or advisors on any basis (including, without limitation, in contract, tort, under federal or state securities laws or otherwise) resulting from the review or use of the Subject Material by the Committees or any of their Permitted Persons. Nothing herein limits either Committee from seeking relief in the Bankruptcy Court with respect to accuracy or completeness of the Subject Material provided by the Debtors.

8. In the event that the Committees or their Permitted Persons are required (or requested (i) by a court of competent jurisdiction, (ii) in connection with a foreign proceeding or litigation, or (iii) or by a federal, state or local governmental or regulatory body) to disclose any Subject Material supplied to the Committees or their respective Permitted Persons, such party will provide the Debtors with prompt written notice of such request or requirements so that the Debtors and/or their affiliates may seek an appropriate protective order and/or seek appropriate approvals from this Court. In the absence of a protective order or the receipt of a waiver hereunder, a Committee or its respective Permitted Persons may disclose that portion of the Subject Material which its counsel advises to be disclosed to such tribunal or governmental authority without liability hereunder. To the extent that a Member is subject to examination by a regulatory authority or bank auditors, it shall not be in breach of its obligations hereunder if it permits such authority or bank auditors to review Subject Material, without notice to any persons, in connection with a review of such Member's files.

9. Upon the Effective Date of any Plan of Reorganization, (the "Termination Date"), and following a written request from the Debtors, the Committees and their respective Permitted Persons shall, in the Debtors' discretion, either (i) destroy the Subject Material in their possession or (ii) (a) return the Subject Material <sup>directly or indirectly</sup> received from the Debtors, their counsel or advisors to the Debtors' counsel and (b) destroy all other Subject Material in their position; provided, however that all parties acknowledge that electronic copies will be deleted but may remain on backup tapes, hard drives, and similar formats (but upon the request of the Debtors, commercially reasonable, good faith efforts will be made to delete such back-up information). Neither the Committees, nor any Permitted Persons, will retain any copies, extracts or other reproductions in whole or in part of the Subject Material except as otherwise permitted herein. Promptly after the date a Member ceases to be a Member or any Permitted Person ceases to be a Permitted Person, such Member or Permitted Person, as the case may be, shall, in the Debtors' option, either (i) destroy the Subject Material in their possession or (ii) return the Subject Material to the Debtors' counsel. All documents, memoranda, notes and other writings whatsoever prepared by, or caused to be prepared by, either Committee or any of their Permitted Persons, based on the information in the Subject Material shall be destroyed on the Termination Date, or as soon thereafter as is practicable, and such destruction shall be certified in writing to the Debtors. Promptly after the date a Member ceases to be a Member or any Permitted Person ceases to be a Permitted Person, as the case may be, all documents, memoranda, notes and other writings whatsoever prepared by or caused to be prepared by any Committee, or their respective Permitted Persons, based on the information on the Subject Material, in the possession of such Member or Permitted Person, shall be destroyed on such date, or as soon thereafter as is practicable, and such destruction shall be certified in writing to the Debtors. The delivery or destruction of Subject Material shall not relieve either Committee, or their respective Permitted

Wace

Persons, of their confidential obligations under this Order. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, if any applicable non-bankruptcy law requires the preservation or retention of the Subject Material beyond the Termination Date, then such material shall be destroyed or turned over to Debtors' counsel in accordance with this paragraph by such later date in accordance with applicable non-bankruptcy law. The confidentiality provisions contained herein shall survive for a period of one year after the Termination Date; provided, however, that the confidentiality provisions related to trade secrets, confidential research, development, or commercial information shall remain and survive forever.

10. The Debtors shall be entitled to equitable relief, including injunction and specific performance, in the event of any breach of the provisions of this Order, in addition to all other remedies available at law or in equity. It is further understood and agreed that no failure or delay by the Debtors with respect to rights and obligations set forth in this Order will operate as a waiver thereof, nor will any single or partial exercise thereof preclude any other or future exercise thereof or the exercise of any right, power or privilege hereunder.
